Twin Cities Headshot Photographer Selected from Thousands of Photographers Worldwide

Minneapolis, St. Paul, Minn. – Dec. 10, 2013 – Jen Kelly, KeliComm Headshots, was recently selected from more than 4,000 photographers from more than 100 countries as an Associate Headshot Photographer. This elite group, which consists of fewer than 40 photographers, who have earned the prestigious title of Associate are from as far away as India, Germany, Switzerland and Canada. Jen Kelly is among a select few in the United States who have earned this honor and is the only photographer in Minnesota.

“Headshot photography is my passion,” says Kelly. “And it is such an honor to be recognized for the work that I love.” Kelly has earned a reputation in the Twin Cities as the “go to” photographer for professional headshots, LinkedIn pictures, social and digital media and corporate websites. Her clients include Twin City corporations and individual professionals at all levels, including C-level executives, who are looking for an authentic portrait that truly captures their brand.

“Our focus is on delivering our clients vision and capturing their brand,” explains Kelly. “In every professional headshot we do, we want our clients to feel that their final images truly represent their brand and authenticity.”

Ph2Pro, who selects and publishes the list of Associate photographers, is the world’s leading headshot community. The group includes the best headshot photographers from around the globe.

Headshots have become a necessary and important tool for everyone—whether a corporate professional or a small business owner or solo-preneur as well as actors/performing artists. Visual marketing and authentic brands are integral to being successful in the digital world. According to Forbes, your LinkedIn profile is seven times more likely to be viewed if you have a profile picture.

Working with Jen Kelly and KeliComm Headshots ensures that your professional headshot captures your brand and authenticity. Every client has a personal consultation prior to their headshot session, receiving advice on wardrobe, accessories, color and tips to prepare for their session. Clients review their images live during the session with Kelly, who draws on her more than 25 years of corporate communications and brand experience to help clients pick the absolute best images for their professional portfolio.

“It is so rewarding when my clients walk away thrilled with their pictures,” adds Kelly. “So many people come in to the studio apprehensive and nervous, saying they are not photogenic. But everyone walks out saying they love their pictures and they had fun. That’s why I love what I do!”
